

Can teaching of the Church be discriminating?

Summary

The article is an attempt to answer the question from its title: Can teaching of the Church be discriminating? The author of the text is of the opinion that proclamation of teaching of the Church never can be a discrimination, even when it is connected with pointing out errors and admonishing for what is right and true. One rule is urgently needed to be observed by those who teach in the name of the Church. It is taken from Lk 6, 37: Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned.
