Communio personarum w odniesieniu do małżeństwa

Communio personarum with Regard to Marriage

Summary

As can be seen, communio personarum, to which God calls married couples besides calling them to the Sacramental marriage is a style of thinking, feeling, and living, which encompasses the whole life of a couple, both in the spiritual and bodily dimension. It should even be stressed that without translating into the bodily dimension, spiritual experience is not authentic and does not have a big value.
