Rola Kościoła partykularnego

w procedurze mianowania biskupów przez papieża

The Role of the Particular Church in the Procedure of Nominating Bishops by the Pope

Summary

The nominations for bishops are very important for the Church. They are considered as very ticklish and requiring delicacy. The article aims to show the role of the particular Church in the procedure. The past and today practices are presented, as well as legal foundation of the process.

Keywords: bishop, the particular Church, pope, nomination, canon law