Summary

The aim of the paper is to present all sorts of groups of bishops and levels of their autonomy in confrontation with primacy of the Pope. The conclusion is that the supreme, full, immediate and universal ordinary power of the Pope in the Church is not limited, but rather strengthened by the power of the bishops gathered together.

Keywords: group of bishops, pope, power, Church, primacy