HOW DO THE POLISH POETS INTERPRET THE SAUL'S CONVERSION? ACTS 9: 1-19; 22: 3-21; 26: 12-19 AND ITS WIRKUNGSGESCHICHTE

Summary

The article contains the analysis of the message of three texts of the Acts (9: 1-19; 22: 3-21; 26: 12-19) and its Wirkungsgeschichte. The whole history of Polish literature knows only five poets who were inspired by the text of Saul's conversion. All of them published their poems in the second half of the 20th century. The Damascus road experience and Saul's call was described by Kazimiera Hłakowiczówna, Roman Brandstaetter, Anna Kamieńska, Janusz St. Pasierb and Jan Turnau. The common theme is Saul's conversion but each of poet pays attention to another aspect of apostle's change.
