Ks. Jacek Siewiora
The place and the role of family in upbringing.
Abstract

Family is a foundation of social and ecclesial life. So that's why it is necessary to undertake activities for reinforcement of this basic community. This article shows that supporting of modern family begins from the parent’s education regarding their duties result from conception and giving birth, and then through pointing them out these areas of bringing up they should realize with regard to their children.

Key words: family, upbringing, parents, functions of a family